COVENTRY WORKERS' COMP SERVICES NAMES
PATRICK SCULLION CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Franklin, Tenn. (March 27, 2009) – Patrick J. Scullion has joined Coventry Workers' Comp Services (CWCS) as chief financial officer. He replaces John Stelben who resumed responsibility for corporate level initiatives at Coventry. Scullion will be based in the Rocky Hill, Connecticut office.

Scullion joins Coventry with over 25 years of healthcare management experience, the vast majority of which are in the work comp managed care sector. Most recently he held the position of President for Aetna Workers' Compensation Access (AWCA). Prior to being promoted to President of AWCA, Pat served as Chief Financial Officer for both AWCA and Aetna's Business Alliances segment, providing financial leadership for the development, implementation and oversight of multiple business strategies including financial planning, forecasting, budgeting, reporting and analysis.

"I am thrilled to have Pat on board," said David Young, CEO of CWCS. "His work comp managed care background coupled with his financial management expertise will serve to enhance what is already a highly effective management team."

Prior to his 5 years at Aetna, Scullion spent 8 years with First Health, which was acquired by Coventry Health Care in 2005. Pat held numerous positions in finance with First Health ultimately spending the last 3 years of his tenure as Vice President and Controller. He is a Certified Public Accountant (C.P.A) and received his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from University of Wisconsin.

"I am honored to join the Coventry Workers' Comp Services' senior management team," Scullion stated. "I am committed to building upon our strong foundation to continue to deliver sustainable value for our clients, providers, employees and shareholders."
